11. Amendment to Clause 42 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction)

(1) For the purposes of the Order where the Seller is not located in the People's Republic of China and the Buyer is located in the People's Republic of China, the Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the People's Republic of China. For greater certainty, the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to the Order. Any claims, controversies or disputes arising from the Order shall be submitted to Shanghai International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, for arbitration pursuant the arbitration rules in effect then. The arbitration shall be conducted in Shanghai. The arbitral award shall be final, enforceable and binding upon the parties.

(2) For the purposes of the Order where both the Buyer and the Seller are located in the People's Republic of China, the Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the People's Republic of China. For greater certainty, the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to the Order. Any claims, controversies or disputes arising from the Order shall be submitted to the jurisdiction of the court where the Buyer is located.

(3) For purposes of the Order where the Seller is located in the People's Republic of China and the Buyer is not located in the People's Republic of China, the Order shall be interpreted and enforced as follows:

- (a) If the location of Buyer from which this Order issued is in the United States of America, this Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the State of Michigan and of the United States of America, exclusive of the choice of law rules thereof. If the location of Buyer from which this Order issued is in Canada, this Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the Province of Ontario and of Canada, exclusive of the choice of law rules thereof. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Order, if the location of Buyer from which this Order issued is other than as set forth above and is not in Europe, this Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the State of Michigan and of the United States of America, exclusive of the choice of law rules thereof. For greater certainty, the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Order.
- (b) Any litigation on contractual claims arising from this Order may be brought by Buyer in any court having jurisdiction over Seller or, at Buyer's option, in Michigan or any court having jurisdiction over any Buyer's locations specified in this Order, in which event Seller consents to jurisdiction and service of process in accordance with applicable procedures. Any claim or proceeding by Seller against Buyer may be brought by Seller only in the court having jurisdiction over the location of Buyer from which this Order issued. Seller irrevocably waives and agrees not to raise any objection it might now or hereafter have to any such claim or proceeding in any such court, including any objection that the place where such court is located is an inconvenient forum or that there is any other claim or proceeding in any other place relating in whole or in part to the same subject matter.
- (c) At Buyer's option, any dispute regarding this Order or any of these Terms, or any other matter between the parties (other than requests for equitable or injunctive relief) will be resolved by binding arbitration, conducted in the English language using a single arbitrator. Buyer may exercise its option by sending Seller written notice within 30 days of receiving formal service of process in a legal action or at any time following receipt of notice of any other claims. The arbitration will be administered by International Centre for Dispute Resolution ("ICDR") and shall be conducted in accordance with the ICDR's International Dispute Resolution Procedures, including its International Mediation and Arbitration Rules (the "Rules"). Unless the Seller and Buyer otherwise mutually agree, the arbitration will be conducted in Oakland County, Michigan, USA. The arbitrator will be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, the arbitrator will be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Rules, or any other selection method agreed upon by the parties. The arbitrator will issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law. Each party will bear equally the costs and expenses of arbitration, and each party will bear its own costs and expenses. All arbitration proceedings shall be confidential, except to the extent that disclosure is necessary to enforce an arbitration award in a court of competent jurisdiction. Judgment upon the arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the party against whom enforcement is sought or such party's property, provided, however, that either party may appeal to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan for correction of any clear error of fact or law by the arbitrator. If the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan lacks subject matter jurisdiction, then the appeal may be brought in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, State of Michigan. This Section shall not preclude the parties from applying to any court of competent jurisdiction for purposes of seeking any preliminary or injunctive remedies available under applicable laws for any purpose, including, but not limited to, securing the subsequent enforcement of an arbitration award. The arbitration provisions of this Section will be governed by the United States Federal Arbitration Act.
